The Road Back is your meeting, please help us make it stronger.

The Road Back is as close to a real meeting as some members can get to in weeks and sometimes, months.

Each issue is themed in advance so members have the opportunity to share their experience, strength and hope prior to the publication of the next 'meeting'.

We often have to borrow material from other sources because not enough 'shares' are submitted to the Road Back directly.

We can't do this alone...

Would you care to share for us?
